

It's important to allow competition in this space - if it's highly regulated and if the NAB gets their way, the consumer loses out. XM satellite radio has made my long suburban cummute bearable, and the instant traffic report is crucial to my navigation.

I urge you to reject the NAB's petition 04-160.